CHARLES SIMMS.

Gill Nets! Gill Nets!

To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties.

AS the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac. Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggons, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be:—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obsturction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.

The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity affordeded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.

If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.

Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended,—and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delelgates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.

For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Gone to the Southward or Westward,

A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia Detcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like moles on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with india ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two week ago, by a man of the name of Basset. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.

MAN'S BEST DESIRE.

In reading of the news,
My mind was much confus'd,
To think of the follies of mankind;
It plainly seem'd to me
That man can never see,
'Till God has enlighten'd his mind.

One undertook to say
Tobacco was the way
To enjoy sweet contentment of mind;
Another plead for snuff,
That it truly was the stuff,
Above all other remedies we find.

Another said that ale
Was never known to fail
In producing contentment of mind;
Another said that gin,
Above every other thing,
Was the best of all remedies we find.

Another recommended sleep,
Quiet consciences to keep,
When sorrows press hard on the mind:
Thus they've left for me to say
That they all have miss'd the way
Where alone sweet contentment we'll find.

What I wish to recommend,
Will answer in the end,
When all earthly enjoyments will fail;
When we're sinking in death's arms,
And the world has lost its charms,
'Twill be a safe guide thro' the vale.

'Tis RELIGION that I mean,
In all ages the same,
To a fallen, degenerate race;
If God you will seek
By repentance and faith,
He surely will give you his grace.

TRUTH.

"COMMON SCOLD."

On Tuesday last, in the city court, came on the trial of Mary Davis, indicted as a common scold. The case being with us a novel one, excited considerable attention, and brought before the court as witnesses several respectable ladies. The evidence given in by the ladies on the part of the prosecution, we understand, was delivered in a style of elegance which drew forth the undivided admiration of a crowded court. The amount of the evidence against the defendant went to prove that her turbulent disposition was an annoyance to the neighborhood, and that her general conduct was that of a common scold. The evidence in favor of the defendant delivered by a number of the immediate neighbors, placed her character in a light entirely different from that set forth in the indictment.

The jury retired about an hour and an half, and returned with a verdict of guilty. The punishment for a "common scold," agreeably to the law is a public ducking. We understand that the counsel for the defendant has moved for a new trial.

We have received Barbadoes papers to the 11th ult. The following is the only article which we find worth extracting:

From the Bridgetown (Barbadoes) Mercury of Oct. 6.

INTELLIGENCE FROM AUGUSTURA.

Extract of a letter from that place, dated 15th Sept. 1818:—"We have this moment received official accounts from Gen. Paez, of his having surprised a large party of Spaniards at the village of Bauls, near San Carlos, and taken or destroyed them—he further advises that Morillo's head-quarters were at San Carlos, on account of the revolt of the province of Coro (which had been always faithful to Ferdinand,) and their having taken Carora. Maracaybo is said to have also shaken off the Spanish yoke.—Gen. Morillo's situation is truly desperate; for, as soon as the weather will allow, he will be attacked on all sides by an overwhelming force. We have received immense supplies of arms and ammunition from America; and the greatest harmony prevails amongst us, and respect for foreign nations."

The ports of Dominica were opened for 6 months from the 30th of Sept. last, for the importation of all kinds of bread stuffs, live stock, and lumber, in any vessel, and from any port.

COMMERCIAL TREATY.

We understand that on the 20th of October, the day before he lately left London on his return to Paris, Mr. Gallatin, in conjunction with Mr. Rush, signed a treaty between the United States and Great Britain, which had just been concluded, by those gentlemen, with Plenipotentiaries on the part of Great Britain; but we do not learn that any copy of this treaty has yet been received here. The crops of corn, wheat and tobacco, in Tennessee, have been unusually abundant. They are said to be more so, than ever has been known since the settlement of that state.

A QUICK THOUGHT.

A few days since, a gentleman having a draft for a few thousand dollars on one of our banks, presented it and demanded specie. No sooner said than done—a number of bags containing one thousand dollars each, in sixpenny pieces and ten and twenty cent pieces and other small change, which would take at least a week to count were turned out. The gentleman untied two or three of the bags, and finding them all filled with this kind of precious metal, thrust his hand into each bag, filled his jacket and pantaloons pockets, and then turning round to the cashier of the bank, informed him that he did not want any more specie at that time than what he had taken from the bags, and desired him to count what was left and place it to his credit, and then left the bank. [N. York Even. Post.

This morning, the court gave an opinion in conformity to the prayer of the counsel of Com. Taylor, and the jury, without leaving the box, gave a verdict of not guilty.

Communicated for the Federal Gazette.

Extract of a letter from Havana to a respectable merchant in Baltimore, dated November 19th.

"Our market for flour has again taken a rise and must be much higher in a few days.

"A cargo arrived yesterday from Philadelphia which sold immediately at $23, and had it have been Baltimore, it would have brought more, as the bakers give a preference of a half to one dollar per barrel, over that of Philadelphia.

"Our produce keeps up high, and will until the new crop comes in. Some small parcels of coffee have already come in, which have been sold at from 28 to $30, but it will, no doubt, be lower. Sugars will not come in before the last of the next month; however, there is a large quantity of the old crop on hand as yet."

A gentleman from Albany informs us that real estate in that place has been very much reduced in price by the Steam-Boat Navigation. Merchants from the westward who formerly made Albany their place of business, scarcely ever make a stop at that place. They calculate on the departure of each steam-boat, and reach there just in time to proceed to this city; which, from its rapid improvements in commerce, seems to have become almost the only place of note.

Our informant also observes, that the citizens of Albany are fearful that the Legislature will adjourn to this city, and fix on it as the future capital of the state.

LATEST FROM CARACCAS.

A Caraccas Gazette, of the 6th of last month, has been received in Washington, which contains an official despatch from the governor of Cumana, Don Thomas de Ceres, to General Morillo, dated the 1st of November. He states, that, having intercepted the enemy's correspondence, he became apprized of his plan to attack him by sea and by land; that he immediately took the necessary measures to defeat it, by concentrating his forces at Caraico, the place that was first to be attacked; that this was executed with such celerity that the revolutionists were not informed of it, who commenced the attack on the 31st October, with 1500 men, commanded by Marino, Montes, and Cedeno; that they were soon routed, and that, on one road only, by which they fled, they counted 100 men killed, and took 300 muskets. The account adds, that the royal troops continued in pursuit of the enemy with directions to follow him as far as Cumanacoa.

From the Washington City Gazette.

We refer our readers to a copy of an intercepted despatch from Lima, which will be found below. It is translated from the original document, now in the possession of our correspondent.

INTERCEPTED DESPATCH.

Baltimore, Dec. 4, 1818.

Mr. ELLIOT,

Sir—The Castilian Spanish Indiaman, of about 800 tons, bound from Lima to Cadiz, has lately been captured by a Buenos Ayres brig of war, off Cape St. Mary's. Her cargo is said to consist of copper, cocoa, bark, and a large quantity of specie.—There were found on board many government and private letters, which show the country to be in a very alarming state.—The following are translated extracts from one of the private letters, dated Lima, May 29, which will, no doubt, be interesting to you, and which you are at liberty to publish, if you think proper.

Your obedient servant, J. M.

TRANSLATION.

"The grand Junta assembled on the 20th inst. by order of his excellency the Vice-Roy, has recommended to make every possible exertion to forward troops to Talcaguano, with a view to engage the attention of the Insurgent army in Chili, and prevent their attempting to invade this kingdom during the present year, and until we are reinforced from Spain. But, altho' this may have such an effect, we are all much alarmed at the present state of things; for the whole regular force of Lima does not exceed three thousand men, and they speak of embarking two thousand, which will leave us very much exposed. To effect this remission of men, money, and warlike stores, for their use, the Junta has also recommended a forced loan from the inhabitants of all classes to the amount of $1,000,000, to be raised next month, which has caused almost an universal disgust. I say but little on the subject; but yesterday, as you will find, embarked twenty thousand dollars in the Castillian, and intend to realize the remainder of my property and go to Europe as soon as it can possibly be done.

"We have, till lately, had a secure way to remit dollars to Panama, but the Insurgent vessels from Chili now swarm in these seas, and capture many of our coasting vessels. The Castillian is the best opportunity, and will probably go safe, as she carries 20 guns, is well manned, and sails remarkably fast. Every one appears to have confidence in this vessel, and as no man of war is soon going, I presume she will carry over eight hundred thousand dollars in specie.

"The crews of the Insurgent privateers, which infest these seas, are said to consist principally of English and North Americans. We know nothing certain, however, as no one has, as yet, been captured by our cruizers—to their shame be it said.

"The old curate of Arequipa, who has been constantly in irons and confined in his dungeon ever since you left here, goes in the Castilian. His revolutionary principles are not doubted by his best friends, the proofs are so clear; and the court at home have little more to do in this case than to execute the sentence of the law. Many others are as guilty as he is; but if the government were to arrest all the suspected, they would hardly know when and where to stop.

"Osorio's popularity has declined much; but he will continue in command at Talcaguano till some one arrives from Spain to take his place. No one here, however, has any belief of our ability to reconquer Chili—to keep the war there for a while is all we can do."

Married,

On Tuesday last, by the Rev. Mr. Steel, of Prince William county, Va. Mr. ALLAN MACRAE, of Dumfries, to Miss ANN D. daughter of Wm. H. Terrett, of Fairfax county.

Died,

On Sunday last, after a long illness, Mrs. SOPHIA R. LYLES, consort of Wm. H. Lyles, Esq. Maryland.

Laws of the District of Columbia.

In the press, and will shortly be published,
By DAVIS & FORCE,
IN THE CITY OF WASHINGTON,

"A COMPLETE CODE OF LAWS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA."

With a copious Index, prepared and reported by the Hon. chief justice CRANCH, to the congress of the United States, for their sanction; agreeably to the provisions of the act of the 29th April, 1816, entitled "an act authorising the judges of the circuit court and the attorney for the District of Columbia, to prepare a code of jurisprudence for the said District."

The laws by which this District is now governed, can only be found by a reference to the numerous volumes containing those of the United States, of the states of Virginia and Maryland, and of England—therefore the acquisition of this code (which will comprise the whole in one volume,) must be considered as of the first importance, by all magistrates, gentlemen of the bar, and citizens in general, who have, heretofore, experienced the necessity of a work of this description.

A few extra copies will be printed for such persons only as apply previous to the publication of the work.

☞ Gentlemen who wish to be supplied, will please to leave their names at this office. 6t Dec 5

To the Public.

AN unusual sensibility has been excited in the minds of our countrymen by the copper plate engraving of the Declaration of Independence recently published, accompanied by fac similes of the signatures of those illustrious patriots who framed the document by which our independence was announced to the world. We feel, while we dwell on those signatures, as if we were ushered into the immediate presence of characters so exalted, and we seem for a time to participate in all the emotion which they felt on the approach of so awful a crisis—Hostile armies, desolate fields, towns and cities in conflagration—carnage and death in its most frightful forms apeared in prophetic vision on the one hand, and more than all, the complicated horrors, ignominy and slavery were presented for their acceptance on the other; they deliberated, they paused, they trembled, and at last solemnly appealing to the God of battles, they resolved that the United States were and ought to be free, sovereign and independent. These illustrious patriots, with five solitary exceptions, have now mingled with the common mould—they survive only in their country's glory and in the recollection of a grateful people. But it would be consoling to the present generation, separated as they now are from those patriots, by the intervention of the tomb, to become more intimately acquainted with their revolutionary benefactors. We love to dwell on the features of such men, snatched by the pencil from the oblivion of the grave, and emulate the prominent feats of their biography. Impressed with these ideas, the subscriber proposes, if suitable encouragement is given, to publish the lives of those patriots in numbers, until the whole is completed. The work will be executed in a style not inferior to any European productions, and the portraits by masters of acknowledged merit. The biography will be written by Paul Allen, esq. whose intimacy with the several signers, whose familiarity with the privations and hardships they had to undergo, and whose well known talents will be sufficient to ensure the patronage of an enlightened people. In the execution of this work, all that the publisher dares to promise is, that he will endeavor to deserve the confidence of his countrymen, and that no exertion on his part will be wanting to prevent an abuse of that confidence. He ventures to solicit the assistance of those gentlemen in possession of authentic facts and anecdotes, by communicating the intelligence that will serve to illustrate the characters and to enrich the biography of those founders of the American Republic.—Those who are in possession of their portraits would enlarge the obligation by a loan of the same.

A prospectus with the terms will be given in a few days.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

Gill Nets! Gill Nets!

To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties.

AS the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac. Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggons, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be:—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obsturction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.
The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity affordeded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.
If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.
Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended,—and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delelgates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.
